Animal, vegetable or mineral... Who cares! However you classify them, you'll love these whimsical solar-powered fruit and veggie inspired animal garden sculptures. Choose from three styles: the Pineapple Turtle, Cauliflower Sheep or Red Bell Pepper Cow or buy all three. Each garden sculpture soaks up the sun's rays by day and then lights automatically at dusk staying lit for hours. Hand-painted and cast from UV and weather resistant resin, they're as durable as they are adorable and provide the perfect accent for your lawn, garden, outdoor patio or walkway.
